

Here With Us Newsletter #4

Dear Friends,

I hope the summer is treating you well!

I'm excited to share the news that my foundation, Here With Us, did something so incredible last month. It is always a challenge to come up with an endeavor suitable to the individuals we aim to serve. The needs of each are so different. The logistics to take on something that will be great for all have to be considered carefully. While you cannot anticipate every obstacle, you must give thought and plan for almost anything. As I've said many times, I want the world for them. I want them to be able to do everything we do. Being part of programs with limited funds, these types of outings are not available. It absolutely thrills me to step in and provide the dollars for them to have these great experiences.

On June 1st, we provided tickets to a Mets game at Citi Field for every individual who wanted to attend along with support staff to ensure a great successful day. More than 80 people participated. Writing a check to cover these costs is something I do with so much enthusiasm and pride. I could not do that without the generosity of the donors I have. The people that believe in this with me. Donating is always a choice, I'm grateful you choose to support Jackson and those like him. Know that every single dollar I take in goes directly to this mission.

I ask you to please visit The Here With Us website and see the smiles. See the joy and happiness that occurred through the money that you so kindly gave. Some of these young people had never experienced a Baseball game before. A ballgame. An American Pastime. Imagine that. I want to do more of this. You can imagine the costs involved. That is where my annual fundraiser comes into play.

While I've done Golf the last two years, this year my choice was to pivot to Music. A day where we can gather, smile, dance a little, sing a little, all while supporting such a worthwhile thing. Please join me once again, with my husband Ron's memory in heart and mind, but more importantly making such a difference in the lives of so many. Something we have always felt so deeply.

Sponsor and or attend our event. Remember it's MUSIC, Something I will never flake on. Something both Ron and I believe brought people together. Share it with me. Be part of this story and make a difference. Invite & registration to follow.

Best Wishes,

Janine Louie
